

Plant Pathology 290
Graduate Seminar Series
Winter quarter, 2008

Seminars will be held from 12:10-1:00
Mondays – 115 Hutchison

- Jan 7 Dr. Ray Hammerschmidt, Stopping the pathogen: When is an induced response also a defense?
- Jan 14 Dr. Brett Tyler, Bioinformatics and functional genomics of Phytophthora infection.
- Jan 21 Academic Holiday
- Jan 28 No Seminar
- Feb 4 Dr. Dina St Clair, Quantitative resistance to Phytophthora infestans in tomato
- Feb 11 Dr. Jim Adaskaveg, Septoria Spot - A minor disease of California citrus causing a collision between disease management, sustainable agriculture, and national and international trade policies
- Feb 18 Academic Holiday
- Feb 25 Dr. Silke Robatzek, Cellular dynamics in plant immunity.
- March 3 Dr. Joe Zhou, Microbial functional genomics: Genomics technologies and environmental applications.
- March 10 Dr. Barry Pryor, Alternaria: allergies and the puzzle of child-onset asthma
- March 17 Dr. Mary Wildermuth, Salicylic acid: key mediator of plant defense

To schedule an appointment with a speaker, please contact Doug Cook at 754-6561 or by email at drcook@ucdavis.edu.